SIBANYE-STILLWATER HR MANAGER LEADS INDUSTRY ASSOCIATION

NOKUTHULA NSUTSHA APPOINTED AS PRESIDENT OF AMIHRP

Dear Colleagues,

This is something to be proud of. Nokuthula Nsutsha, HR Lead Learning and Development (Academy), has been appointed as President and Chair of The Association of Mining Industry Human Resource Practitioners (AMIHRP). This 100-year-old institution that promotes, directs and sustains best practice, professionalism and ethical behaviour of HR practitioners in the mining industry. This is indeed an honour for Nokuthula and for the whole Sibanye-Stillwater family as it affirms our standing as leaders in the industry.

Please join me in congratulating Nokuthula on this prestigious appointment. During her tenure, Nokuthula will play a key role in the development of members of the AMIHRP by contributing to value-adding interventions and networking sessions – all aimed at 'upping our game' in this challenging industry. Best of luck Nokuthula, you have our full support!

Sibanye-Stillwater, We are One!

Sincerely,

VUSI SAMPULA
